Shifts in corporate thinking, reporting and governance

~ with Professor Mervyn King ~

15 September 2018 | 2.30pm–4.00pm

LT-2 Mr and Mrs Sze Chi Ching Lecture Theatre, City University of Hong Kong

The Hong Kong Institute of Chartered Secretaries (HKICS) is pleased to have invited distinguished speaker Professor Mervyn King, Chairman of the International Integrated Reporting Council (IIRC), to give a 1.5 hours lecture under the theme of "Shifts in corporate thinking, reporting and governance". The primary aim of this lecture is to provide HKICS students with an up-to-date governance framework and stimulate new thinking.

The final event of the HKICS Corporate Governance Week, this engaging lecture comprises seven core topics and all students will be encouraged to express and share their views. Applicants who must be HKICS students are free to attend through online registration.

Core topics of the lecture:

- Shift from silo reporting to integrated reporting
- Shift from short term profit to value creation
- Shift to sustainable development
- Shift from financial to inclusive capital
- Shift from mindless checklist governance to mindful governance
- Shift from focus on shareholder wealth to the long term health of the company
- Shift to outcomes based governance
